

2013 WEBINAR SERIES: Plant Pathology and Entomology

The Schutter Diagnostic Lab in collaboration with the Great Plains Diagnostic Network invites you to attend a webinar series.

PLACE: PBB 121 or your office*

TIME: 9:00 a.m. Wednesdays

January 16	Impatiens Downy Mildew	Aaron Palmateer Professor and Extension Specialist, Plant Pathology – University of Florida
January 23	Powdery Mildew on Vegetable Crops	Kate Evert Professor and Extension Plant Pathologist, University of Maryland
January 30	TBA
February 6	Virus Diseases of Brambles– Diagnosis and Relative Importance	Ioannis Tzanetakis Professor, Plant Pathology, University of Arkansas
February 13	Durability of disease resistance in Kansas wheat cultivars	Bill Bockus Professor, Plant Pathology, Kansas State University
February 20	Mites—from bad to beneficial— in gardens & greenhouses	Jody Fetzer Garden Supervisor, Hillwood Estate, Museum & Gardens
February 27	TBA
March 6	Update on STAR-D	Dawn O'Brien Extension Plant Pathologist, Cornell University
	Sentinel Plant Network	Rachel McCarthy NPDN Education and Training Coordinator, Cornell University

*To Join go to <http://connect.ksre.ksu.edu/gpdnseminars/>. Once there “Enter as a Guest” by typing in your name and affiliation. Next click on “Audio” at the top of the screen, then “Start Audio Conference”. This will list three options, choose “Receive a call from the meeting (Dial-out)” and enter your phone number. Contact Linnea Skoglund, diagnostics@montana.edu, for information more information. All sessions are recorded.